Injunction Dissolved-School Authorities Come Out Ahead - A Surprise Party.

DANVILLE, VA., September 17, '95 Our readers will no doubt remember that we announced through our letter work among his people. We cannot speak too highly for him as a pastor a few weeks ago that the white people on Dasca Hill had entered an injunc-tion in court restraining the city from building the colored school on the cor At the 1st Baptist Church, Rev. R. C. Quarles filled the pulpit morning and evening. He preached two most excellent sermon, which made an excellent impression and were listened to with deep interest by the congregation. A SHOOTING AFFAIR.

Danville, Va., Sept. 24, 1895 The shooting of Rev R. G Adams by contractor Lindsay created no little stir here. Although Lindsay claimed that The Boys and Men-Shall We Leave Mr and Mrs. L. E Morton, Adams was intimate with his wife, the testimony as brought ou during the trial of Lindsay entirely re luted the charge, and there are non saving a few enemies of the Reverence who believe him guilty of improper conduct toward Mrs. Lindsay. Las Sabbath when Rev. Adams hobbled in to his church, the First Baptist of Ne apolis, he found the building packed to its utmost capacity by his member and friends who had come to express their sympathy and to show their grati-tude that the Reverend had not suffer ed a more serious injury. At the con clusion of the services on being called upon for an expression of their opinion as to the whole affair, they by a quani-mous vote evidenced the fact that they were fully convinced of their pastor' innocence, and denounced the actio of Lindsay as being but the result of misplaced confidence in his wife and uncalled for jealousy toward Rev. Adams

The citizens of Neapolis, both white and colored join in the opinion as ex-pressed above. Rev. Adams is again moving around looking after his church work. His school will open in a fev at at Hand for Work. The Young Men's Christian Associa ion stands for something in our city. Henry C. Hunter,

The results for each year show for themselves. The meeting held at our rooms have been the medium through Andrew Asrenson, which many have been brought to Christ. Our fire has throwed out many feet from freezing. Some have C H. Wormley, heen given shelter During the Miss Wartha Wallace, hard weather of last winter the rap from many starving mouths was heard upon our doors and answered. The meetings in the jail of our city and county are on record for always. If Morris Hopkins could speak to-day he would tell of the joyous moments the Young Men's Christian Association W. H. Johnson, brought to him when all had forgotten him. Hearing of the wonderful things Dr. Shea was doing, I resolved to consult him. He told me that my husband was alive and well and where he was; told me he would come home and when. To my joy all of it came true. He is home now, came back like one from the dead. Lalso wish to say that this month I lost $250. am a poor woman and I was most inane. I went to Dr. Shea and he tole me I would find my money and to my in tense joy I did find it as he told me. I thank God there is a man so gifted in our midst that can help people and tell them what to do. Sincerely, Mrs. Bar rett, 121 23rd street. A Sensation in Brooklyn-A Minister?
